Grief Support Groups & Gatherings Calendar

November/December 2026

The Compassionate Compass Community is a peer support space for those grieving loss.

All support groups and programs are held at The Compassionate Compass Community office unless otherwise noted:
3321-B Candelaria Rd NE, #411
Albuquerque, NM 87107

You are invited whether your loss is recent or occurred years ago.

Registration and RSVP is required for all groups and gatherings. Register online using the QR code or visit our website. If you prefer, you can fill out a one-time informational form upon your arrival.

The Compassionate Compass relies on community contributions to sustain operations and provide meaningful opportunities for learning and grief support.

Your first gathering is free!
Afterward, we kindly invite you to contribute $20 per month, or whatever amount is manageable for you. Some special gatherings may carry an additional cost. You can bring cash to gatherings or contribute via the methods listed on our website.

No one will be turned away due to financial circumstances. Please contact Genna Reeves if you'd like to discuss your situation.
